Paid for and authorized by the 11th Congressional District of Virginia Republican Committee.
Not authorized by any candidate or candidate committee. Contributions are not tax deductible.

Federal and State laws require us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, address, occupation, and employer of all contributors. Federally permissible donations (e.g., from individuals or federally registered political committees) are deposited into our Federal account. Contributions that are not Federally permissible but meet State requirements (e.g., from the funds of corporations, labor organizations, national banks, government contractors or non-federally registered political committees) are deposited into our non-Federal account. Prohibited are contributions from any person contributing another person's funds or foreign nationals who lack permanent resident status.
